ITALY WOULD BRING PEACE

Turkey Would Agree To Occupation of Tripoli.

GERMANY IS VERY ACTIVE.

Turks Have So Far Offered No Resistance To The Invaders.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Advices received by the State Department from the Embassy at Rome express the belief that if the Ottoman Government accepts the occupation of Tripoli and restores the status previously existing in Turkey, the Italian Government will be desirous of bringing about peace at the earliest possible moment. The efforts of Germany to effect a settlement continue unabated according to the dispatch. The news of the occupation of Tripoli by the Italian forces was confirmed, and it was stated that marines had been landed without serious opposition. The Turkish troops withdrew into the back country.

BREAKS RECORDS

Tennessee Farmer Grows 225
Bushels of Corn to Acre.

Jackson, Tenn., Oct. 9.—Two hundred and twenty-five bushels to the acre is the average yield of three acres of corn grown by J. N. Holfield, a Madison county farmer. Each one of the acres yielded 225 bushels.
The crop breaks all Madison county records and comes within three bushels of equaling the highest record ever known in the United States, which was made by a North Carolina corn club boy with a yield of 228 bushels on an acre. Mr. Holfield cultivated his corn by a secret method, which he believes will revolutionize corn growing when he makes it known. He has been experimenting for a number of years, and believes that he has now perfected his plans.
He expects to make 300 bushels to the acre next year. The figures as to this year are authentic.

INTERURBAN RAILROADERS

Guthrie Delegation Arrived
Yesterday With Chicago
Capitalists.

LOOKING OVER THE LINE.

Proposed Electric Line From Hopkinsville to Guthrie.

Mayor George Snaden, of Guthrie, arrived in the city yesterday in charge of a party of capitalists from Chicago who are looking over the route of the proposed interurban road.

They came from Guthrie with a delegation of Guthrie business men in half a dozen autos.
The party was comprised of Chas.
Russell and W. O. Myers, Chicago;
Ed E. Walker, Cincinnati; Charles Van Den Burgh, of this city, and George Snaden, Claude Mimms,
Claude Mimms, Jr., W. B. Rosson,
W. E. Frazer, Frank Snaden, Jr.,
Robt. Rosson, A. J. Buck, H. A.
Hamill, W. S. Rogers, J. Farmer
R. F. Warren, Dr. J. M. Robinson,
W. B. Balee, Vernon Mimms, Col.
J. T. Evans, Editor F. O. Wallace,
Will Piper, Bud Page, Harry Williams, W. S. Bryan and Tom Powell, of Guthrie and J. T. Penick and S.
W. Forgy, of Elkton.

The party were guests of the Guthrie Commercial Club and after an enthusiastic meeting at Guthrie came to Trenton where another meeting was held. The next stop was at Pembroke for dinner and the cars reached here at two o'clock.
Mr. Van Den Burgh at once began arranging for a meeting to be held last night at the court house, the proceedings of which were too late for this issue.

The capitalists are much pleased with the outlook for the proposed line and all of the towns along the line are enthusiastic over the project.
Hopkinsville should be ready to do her part in making the road a cer-tainity.

Losses $1,500,000.

The loss from the flood in the Black River valley, Wisconsin, is estimated at $1,500,000.

ONE ANKLE FRACTURED

In A Fall From A Buggy Near Heberson Church Sunday.

MISS FANNIE LANDER HURT.

Pretty Young Lady Victim of a Painful Accident En Route To Church.

Miss Fannie Lander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lander, of Church Hill, was thrown from a buggy near Hebron church Sunday and her right ankle was fractured and other injuries sustained of a less serious character.

Miss Lander was in a buggy with Collins Williams and had started from Sunday School at Hebron to Rich church to preaching and the accident occurred between the two churches. A bolt holding the shaft on one side came out and the horse, a young colt, became unmanageable and during the excitement Miss Lander jumped out or fell out. Mr.
Williams finally quieted the animal.
Several couples of young people were along and Miss Lander was quickly removed to her home near by and surgical aid rendered. She is resting comfortable and it is hoped no complications will follow. Only one bone was broken, a little above the ankle. The party of young people had been invited to take dinner at Mr. E. D. Jones' after preaching, but the accident broke up the party.

THROWN FROM BUGGY.

East Christian County Farmer
Badly Injured Near City.

Mr. George W. Petty, a well known farmer residing about six miles east of the city, sustained serious injuries in a runaway accident one day last week. Mr. Petty was returning home from the city in a buggy when the accident occurred.
He was found by the side of the pike in an unconscious condition by a negro. He was taken to his home and an examination by a physician showed that several ribs had been broken and he was otherwise injured. Mr. Petty was reported slightly improved yesterday and it is thought he will recovery.

word that she sings is readily understood by her audience.

Besides Mme Van Loon several noted soloists will be heard during the Innes engagement, among these being Adolph H. Engstrom, the fa-

Council Grants Permission For A Carnival To Be Held Next Week.

The council met Friday night in regular session with all members and the mayor present.

The following accounts were allowed: September budget $332.54;
City Light Co. $572.79; Richard Boyd, contract for pavement, $158.80; Dalton Bros. $52.59; supplies fire department $76.31; Hopkinsville Stone Co.
$526.51; E. H. Armstrong, city jailer, $211.50; several other smaller claims.

The usual monthly reports from heads of departments were received and filed.

Upon the request of C. E. Harris and others from the U. R. Knights of Pythias, a carnival license was donated to the Rank for the week of October 16, when the Krause Co.
will give a carnival under its auspices. The usual restrictions will be thrown around it.

An order was made setting forth that the pavement between Clay and Railroad streets, on the north side, is to be 9 feet for public purposes, the additional pavement of three feet on the inner side being owned by the property owners.

Concrete culvert crossings were ordered in at 12th and 13th streets on South Main.

An ordinance was passed amending the automobile ordinance, by making the license $15 a year and striking out the words "or fractional part thereof," no license to be for less than one quarter of the annual rate.

Appropriation Increased.

The Committee on River Improvements submitted the following report:
REPORT OF RIVER IMPROVE-MENTS COMMITTEE.

TO THE COUNCIL:—

Your committee to whom was referred the expenditure of $1,650 for improving Little River inside of the city limits by dredging same and by deepening the water by the construction of a dam, beg leave to report:

The question of constructing a dam at Ninth street, at first discussed, has been abandoned for several reasons. Some of the property owners along the river banks raised objections and a formal petition was presented to your honorable body protesting against the dam at that point. We are able to report that the parties who circulated this petition have withdrawn their opposition upon being assured that the dam will be placed further up the stream and the petitions have been withdrawn.

A survey of the river has been made by Mr. A. O. Hastings, a skilled engineer, and a topographical map of the stream has been prepared. This shows that the fall in the river from a point 300 feet above the L. & N. bridge is 3.8 feet, in a distance of little more than one mile, and that 1.5 feet of this is below
Second street. It follows that a dam can therefore be constructed at Second street with 1½ feet less of masonry than at Ninth and that it would be 30 feet shorter on account of the stream being narrower and the banks higher at that point. We have therefore concluded that the logical place for the dam is at Second street, where the difference in cost of construction will be something like $500.
Another advantage is that the Fourth street and Ninth street sewers would both empty into the river below the dam and the water retained could be used to flush the river bed below when needed.

William Elroy Curtis, the well-known traveler, journalist and writer on political topics, of Washington, died suddenly in his room in a hotel at Philadelphia. Mr. Curtis was accompanied by his wife. He was stricken with apoplexy. He was sixty-one years old. Mr. Curtis was born in Akron, O., in 1850, and was educated at Western Reserve College and had been for years special correspondent of the Chicago Record Herald.

The monster dam of the LaCrosse Water Company broke and millions of gallons of water were turned loose into the valley below LaCrosse, Wis., running along at the rate of 50 or 60 miles an hour. Trees were snapped off like bean stalks and houses swept away like corks on the bosom of the angry flood. The people being warned escaped without loss of life.

They are about to strike "pay dirt" in the bribery investigation of Senator Ike Stephenson, of Wisconsin. He and his campaign manager, Edmonds, admit spending $107,000 and say they cannot tell what it was for. Edmonds went over a list of several hundred items where men had been paid sums ranging from $25 to $3,000, but said he had no record to show what the recipients of the money did with it.

"Well, then," declared Senator Heyburn, "we wish while you are giving such testimony to call your attention to the way in which the United States Senate will look upon it. The rule is that where charges are officially made and no record can be given of funds admittedly spent, the presumption is that they were wrongfully used and the burden of proof is on the person against whom the charges were preferred."

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake If You Follow This Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys. If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are common symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is recommended for the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. It has cured many stubborn cases in this vicinity.

Can Hopkinsville residents demand further proof than the following testimonial?

J. J. Alexander, Jefferson St., Cadiz, Ky., Says: "I am very grateful for the relief I derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and consider that it is no more than my duty to recommend them. I was a sufferer from kidney trouble for the past five years and my back was weak and painful. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and this greatly disturbed my rest. I consulted doctors and tried different remedies but found no relief until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. They promptly removed the pains and aches and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

BEFORE MAYORS

Many Subjects of Much Public Interest Discussed By Them.

Atlanta, Ga., October 5.—Three hundred men who have a great deal to say regarding the administration of affairs in many of the cities of the United States and Canada, mayors and aldermen now gathered here to participate in the fifteenth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities, awoke this morning prepared to enjoy a strenuous programme, arranged for the second day of the event.

The morning was devoted to listening to addresses on subjects of vital interest to men who govern cities, discussion of the subjects treated and an exchange of ideas on the various features of municipal government.

An automobile ride and barbecue this afternoon were the social features. This evening a reception in honor of the delegates will be held at the Piedmont Driving Club. Former Mayor Robert F. Maddox of Atlanta will be host to forty of the visitors at dinner at the Capital City Club to-night.

Who Was There That You Know?

In the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death in the great Civil War, there is a man whose name you know. Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $50,000; they were buried in the War Department for 50 years—they are buried still. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who died poor and broken down; that duplicate set was knocked from pillar to post for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan tried to secure the collection—Ex-President Garfield and General Benjamin F. Butler said it was worth $150,000—yet with the help of the Review of Reviews, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs. It is the one accurate, impartial history of the Civil War—for the camera cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.

Here and There

Rev. A. Malone, aged 68, and one of the best-known Baptist ministers in this section, died Sunday morning from the effects of poison caused by a carbuncle. Rev. Malone was born in Trigg county, Ky., and for forty-four years was a zealous minister of the gospel. During his ministerial life he preached more than 5,800 sermons.—Franklin Favorite.

Mr. George Crofton has received a check for $2,000 from the L. & N. railroad company in settlement of all claims against the road. It will be remembered that Mr. Crofton's son was killed in the Guthrie yards some weeks ago by a switch engine, and the above amount was tendered him without litigation. Mr. Crofton has been a valued employee of the L. & N. for over thirty years, and lays no blame whatever to the road for the death of his son.—Guthrie Journal.

The world's baseball championship series will begin on Saturday, October 14, the place to be decided by a toss of a coin.

Landlord Ackerman, of Hotel Ackerman, has a calladium, or elephant ear, in his pretty little flower garden, the largest leaves of which measure 50x35 inches.—Pembroke Journal.

"I suffered habitually from constipation. Doan's Regulets relieved and strengthened the bowels, so that they have been regular ever since."—A. E. Davis, grocer, Sulphur Springs, Tex.

Russia's New Premier.

Waldemar Kokovtsoff, the new premier of Russia, is regarded as quite as strong and independent in character as the late M. Stolypin and much more liberal. When chief of the prisons of the Russian government he spent a considerable time in this country studying the penal systems. He is fifty-nine years old. Kokovtsoff and Stolypin were political adversaries for a number of years, and at no time were they on good terms with one another.

Christian County Case.

In reversing the case of American Patriots Co. vs. Nora Kinkad, etc., from Christian county, the court holds that Section 631 of Kentucky Statutes, as to serving process on the Insurance Commissioner in insurance suits, does not apply to a fraternal insurance organization that has a governing body in another state, and processes must be served on a designated agent of the organization.

Turkeys Plentiful.

Carlisle, Ky., Oct. 4.—Reports indicate that Nicholas county will this year have one of the largest turkey crops for the market known in years. On nearly every farm large droves of the birds are seen and indications are that the market will be well supplied and the prices reasonable. Carlisle is one of the largest turkey markets in this part of the state.

Has Quit Business.

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 6.—Because of a falling off of a business the bank of Nortonville closed its doors. Mr. T. F. Ballard was appointed to liquidate all money on deposit. Every depositor will receive the full amount of his balance. It was found that about $2,000 was on deposit when the officers decided to suspend business.

Pumpkin Jam.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 6.—Thousands of pumpkins from farms up the river overflowed by the flood, clogged the Licking river today. Hundreds of them were fished out by rivermen. The loss from the flood will aggregate $60,000.

"Have You Got Yours?"

Washington, Oct. 5.—Each citizen of the United States, under an equal division, would have $34.35, the per capita circulation on October 2, according to the circulation statement of the Treasury Department. The total money in circulation amounted to $3,242,182,715, an increase over the preceding month, when it was $3,228,913,634.

On October 1, 1910, the money in circulation totaled $3,164,827,681.

JEFFERSON COUNTY SCHOOL.

Kentucky Out of Step With the March of Education.

If you had not driven twelve miles from big, throbbing, pulsing Louisville along perfect roadways sprinkled with oil you would think you were far out in some rural community when you gaze at Rocky Hill school. It seems impossible for such a schoolhouse to be tolerated in a county as rich and prosperous as Jefferson.

Its style of architecture is severely simple. This idea of extreme simplicity is carried out in the veranda of red corrugated iron supported on plain 2 by 4 studding.

If the building, the main building, lacks beauty, the old coal house is much worse. It looks as if after years of wear and tear the neighbors had felt sorry for it and had had something of a donation party. This, of course, is merely a surmise, but it is the only possible solution to the general make-up of the building. Evidently one neighbor had donated some old red roofing tin. Another neighbor, seeing the need of a door, had sent over one that had been cut "kinder whopper jawed" and would

THE DOOR WAS "KINDER WHOPPER JAWED" not fit anywhere—then, having no hinges, it had been tacked on anyway and left standing wide open for the weeds to grow about it.

Jefferson county, with its trolley lines, its splendid roads, its wealth, should be an object lesson to the rest of the state in schools and school equipment, but she is just where the others are.

The whole state is out of step with the march of education.

MOVED THE LECTURER.

Church Too Good For Him, but Schoolhouse Was Just the Place.

The man who was to give an illustrated lecture at Deer Creek sat on the steps of the Deer Creek church with his grips and gas drums about him. Seven-thirty came and went; the early summer twilight deepened while a family of screech owls discussed their affairs under their breath; 8 o'clock came and still no audience. A buggy rattled on the road below, and a voice called shrilly:

"Hello! Anybody up there?"

"Yes, and I want to get in to put my lantern in place," answered the lecturer.

"Didn't you hear that we had changed the place?" queried the voice.

"No."

"Well, we did. You better get your things in your wagon and come down to the schoolhouse, half a mile down the road, for the folks is there waiting for you."

"How did you happen to change the place of the lecture at the last moment?"

"It was this way: You see, we knew you had to have a big light in your lantern—oil or kerosene—or other—and we knew, too, that you had to have a sheet or sumthin' big and white to throw the pictures on to and it would have to be tacked on to the wall. We have just had put down a brand new carpet on the church and papered the walls, so we were afraid you would spill oil on the carpet or punch holes in the new wall paper tacking up your sheet. You see, we were afraid you'd hurt the church some way, so we moved you down here because you couldn't hurt the schoolhouse at all."

The Boy Understood.

One of the educational committee in Louisville had pinned on his button and went out onto the street for a paper. While the boy was counting out the pennies in change he caught sight of the white and blue button. He smiled and got onto his tiptoes and read slowly:

"My $ for improvement Kentucky schools."

Again he smiled and, reaching out a grimy paw, exclaimed:

"Put it there and shake. I'm with you fellers, all right."

Suspender Anatomy.

Suppose that instead of being provided with a frictionless ball and socket joint, your arms had to stretch a muscle or ligament every time you moved them. You would be tired out long before bed time.

The Mayor Was Mad.

Mayor W. L. Rice, of Bristol, Va., nearly 80 years old, vigorously caned Alfred B. Blanchard, a prominent Bristol attorney, dealing him two heavy blows over the head. The attorney staggered backward and, regaining his footing, hurried to his room. In a moment a crowd had gathered. Mayor Rice explained by saying that Blanchard had accused him of being intoxicated while trying a case in the police court.

Mayor Rice is game and disposed to readily resent anything he might consider as an insult. He was the first Mayor of Bristol in 1857 and has been repeatedly elected to that position in recent years.

POLITICAL NOTES

Judge O'Rear refuses to discuss national questions, and charges the Democrats with dodging State issues because they insist upon holding up to public scorn the broken pledges of the R-publican party in Congress, and the failure of the Republican President to grant relief to the tax-burdened people.

It is not possible for Judge O'Rear to discuss these matters, because with one breath he says he is for Taft and approves his administration, and with the next breath he is as progressive as LaFollette, who has consistently fought the reactionary policies of the President.

Bradley is for one national policy, and O'Rear for another. Langley, his Campaign Manager, believes one thing, and O'Rear believes another. Congressman Caleb Powers, who may go to the Senate if the Republicans carry the Legislature, stands for national policies that are at variance with Judge O'Rear's views.

In the nature of things, the Republican nominee for Governor cannot open his mouth on national matters, because no two of his supporters think alike on questions that are agitating the people.

The voters of Kentucky want to know now the next United States Senator from this State will vote on the question of a protective tariff, and control of the trusts. Senator Bradley has proclaimed himself a strong protectionist, and his record in the Senate follows his party in support of those great combinations of capital that have decreased wages, and raised the prices of necessities.

If Ollie James is elected to the Senate, he will stand as a representative of the people against all the aggressions of Monopoly, and he will vote in favor of a tariff for revenue only just as in the lower house he stood fighting for Democratic principles.

As the next Legislature will elect Mr. James or a Republican, it is important that the people of the State should be informed on just how the parties stand on these over shadowing issues. The Democrats have dealt frankly with the votes by naming their Candidate and putting him in the field that the people may see and hear him, and learn his views. No one knows who the Republican nominee will be, but if it is not Congressman Langley, who lacks the ability for such high station, it will be Caleb Powers, who was convicted of conspiring to assassinate Governor Goebel.

It is not surprising that Judge O'Rear does not want to discuss national issues when such embarrassing conditions as these confront him. His silence, however, will not prevent the Democrats from proclaiming the doctrines of their party, and from appealing to their fellow Democrats to vote for men for the Legislature and for State offices, who are pledged to support the reforms that the Democratic party alone have advocated and can carry out.

JURY TAKES MILL CASE.

Argument Occupied Entire Day Yesterday In Circuit Court.

STRONG SPEECHES MADE

Commonwealths Attorney Smith Closed the Prosecution At Five O'clock.

The argument of the case of the Commonwealth vs. R. H. DeTreville, charged with embezzling the funds of the Acme Mills & Elevator Co., occupied all of the day yesterday in circuit court. The taking of evidence was concluded Saturday and the jury was held together over Sunday.

Speeches were made by Attorneys G. W. Southall, Thos. P. Cook and C. H. Bush for the defense, and by S. Y. Trimble and Denny P. Smith for the prosecution. Mr. Smith closed late in the afternoon and the case went to the jury. A verdict is expected by to-day.

The grand jury has not yet adjourned but will do so in a day or two.

FOOTBALL SEASON OPEN

High School Wins First Game From Guthrie By Score of 35 to 0.

On Saturday afternoon the local football season was opened by the game between the teams representing the Hopkinsville High School and the Guthrie High School. From the first it was seen that Hopkinsville was to have an easy victory, for in the first six minutes of play the Orange and Black team succeeded in carrying the ball across the opponent's goal line three times. The High School team was outweighed about ten pounds to the man and the muddy condition of the ground also prevented much open field work; but against these odds the High School team displayed a grit, determination and perfect team work which could only result in a victory.

While every member of the High School team played an excellent game Abbott and Higgins deserve special mention. Their line-backing and running the ends even on the heavy field were the features of the game. The line also did great work, never failing to make openings for the backs to shoot through. Several times they broke through and blocked punts and then also recovered the ball. Capt. Green at quarter showed that his work here will be just as good if not better than his work was at end last year.

Too much praise cannot be given to Coach Powell for his untiring efforts and his skill in building up this machine. The team showed perfect work in every department of the game, with the possible exception of the forward passes. This may be accounted for by the fact that the ball was very wet and sleek, thus making accurate passing impossible. The line-up was as follows:

H. H. S.	Guthrie
Robertson C.	Bales
Walker, Draper R. G.	Peebles
Tibbs, Reeves L. G.	Linebaugh
Armstrong R. T.	Cobb
Gary L. T.	Johnson
Hayes, Warfield R. E.	Murray
Roberts L. E.	Greenfield
Green, Capt. Q.	Means
Abbitt L. H.	Kimboough, Capt.
Higgins R. H.	Jordan
Twyman F. B.	Molton

Referee, Meacham; Umpire, Gylford; Head Linesman, Hill; Field Judge, Burnett. Time of quarter, ten minutes. Touchdowns—Abbitt 3, Armstrong, Green, Roberts. Goals kicked—Green 5.

Kansas Woman Helpless.

Lawrence, Kas.—Mr. J. F. Stone, of this city, says, "My wife suffered for ten years from womanly troubles, during two years of which she was totally helpless. She was examined by many physicians, some of whom gave her up to die. Finally she began to take Cardui, and since then has greatly improved in health. The tonic, strengthening, and restorative effects of Cardui, the womanly constitution, are the most valuable qualities of this popular medicine. Cardui acts specially on the womanly constitution. Half a century of success proves that Cardui will do all that is claimed for it. Try it for your trouble."

AN INCREASE IS GRANTED.

All of the protesting property owners along the stream also have their objections removed. Having decided upon the location, we have secured options and agreements covering the entire river front from Second street to Hargraves street on the east side and from Second street to the bend of the river on the west side.

We also recommend for the council's approval that the committee be empowered to expend a part of the money placed in its hands in constructing the piers of the dam high enough to serve as abutments for an iron bridge at Second street. The piers can be built within the appropriation and the bridge itself will cost about $500, when erected. We believe that this plan will meet the hearty approval of the people and that the public improvements made will be of inestimable value to the city in many ways.

Respectfully submitted,
CHAS. M. MEACHAM,
G. E. RANDLE,
J. B. GALBREATH,
E. H. HIGGINS,
COMMITTEE.

October 3, 1911.

On motion the appropriation of $1,650 was increased to an amount not to exceed $2,500, to build the dam and bridge combined, as recommended in the committee's report. The mayor was authorized to appoint a special officer for not exceeding 60 days to assist the city engineer in looking after the large amount of street work now going on. H. D. Denton has been named for the place, with police authority.

The Bridge Committee was directed to receive bids at once for an entire new concrete floor in the North Main street bridge, which has never been accepted by the city. The floor, the third one, will be paid for out of the amount held back from the contractors.

The council adjourned till some night this week, to be fixed later.

Re-Union At Crofton.

The annual re-union of federal soldiers who enlisted from this county was held at Crofton last Saturday.

Notwithstanding the rainy bad day quite a number were present and after partaking of the kind hospitality of the ladies of Crofton, the soldiers assembled at the Christian church, where they had music and a number of addresses by the comrades, Mrs. Moore, of Chicago, Capt. Pratt, M. B. Brown, John B. Martin, Wm. Kimbro, Jas. M. Clark and others making addresses.

Miss Ernise Flowers recited a beautiful poem, and Mrs. Cassie Croft and Miss Cora Brown played and sang "Just before the battlemother" that so touched the old comrades that there were but few dry eyes amongst them. M. B. Brown, President, and C. A. Brasher, Secretary, were re-elected by acclamation.

WEST SIDE REVIVAL

Sunday a Busy Day With Evangelist Ratcliff.

The services at the Second Baptist church Sunday were unusually interesting and far reaching.

The morning sermon on the subject, "The Wonderful Christ", was eloquently delivered to an interested audience. In the afternoon the house was filled with mothers and daughters so inspired with the earnest and tender appeals that they unanimously pledged themselves to be better mothers and daughters. Also at the mass meeting for men the preacher made even a stronger appeal to them to be better husbands and fathers, portraying vividly the horrors of a sinful life and the blessedness of a christian life.

At night service, though Mr. Ratcliff had spoken four times previously, his message grew more earnest and eloquent and was probably the most effective of all. The house was filled. Even neighbors brought in chairs, children sat on the rostrum, members of the church stood up to give seats to outsiders, others stood in the hall and class rooms and at windows on the outside, others turned away from the house so crowded. Surely the main auditorium is already in demand.

As he portrayed a glimpse "Of A Lost Soul In Hell" parents, wives and children wept and played for lost loved ones. What a powerful appeal it was; yet some are so hardened that he asked with fiery eloquence if he must lengthen his arm into the confines of the redeemed in Paradise and bring back a glad soul to tell of the joys of that blissful realm before they would seek to go there.

There is one very notable feature about Mr. Ratcliff's preaching, he never exhausts his subject, always quitting rather than finishing. He impresses his audiences with his unlimited reserve forces.

Services during the week at 3:15 P. M. and 7:30 P. M.

OPERATION UNSUCCESSFUL.

Sad Death of Mrs. Fannie Fairleigh Ware, In Louisville.

Mrs. Fannie Fairleigh Ware, who went to Louisville last Friday and underwent an operation for gall stones, at Norton's Infirmary, died Saturday evening following the operation. Her mother, Mrs. Anna Fairleigh went with her and on Saturday at 11:30 her brothers, Tom and Bob Fairleigh and her sons, Fairleigh and Wallace Ware left over the I. C. Railroad and reached Louisville at 6 p. m. She died the same evening. The body was brought home yesterday and the funeral was held from the family residence yesterday afternoon. Rev. A. R. Kasey, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted the services.

Mrs. Ware was the second daughter of the late Dr. K. M. Fairleigh and widow of the late James Dudley Ware. She was a lady of many accomplishments and personal graces and was prominent in her church and in works of charity and in kindness. She was also conspicuous in the club life of the city, holding membership in several of the leading literary and social clubs. She is survived by two sisters, in addition to other near relatives named above. Mrs. A. W. Wood, of this city, and

Mrs. Edward Curd, Jr., of Oklahoma.

Many friends feel a profound sorrow at her untimely death. She left home little expecting that death was so near. She had planned to take up her literary work upon her return, saying she expected to be gone only a few weeks.

When you want to make trips to the country or go pleasure riding I am now in a position to serve you. I have in my charge the automobile belonging to Fred Jackson and will be ready at all times to go anywhere at reasonable prices. I will assure you of getting to the place and back. Call Cumb. ## Mrs. Vest Felt Like Crying.

Wallace, Va.—Mrs. Mary Vest, of this place, says, "I hadn't been very well for three years, and at last I was taken bad. I could not stand on my feet, I had such pains. I ached all over. I felt like crying all the time. Mother insisted on my trying Cardui. Now I feel well, and do nearly all my housework." No medicine for weak and ailing women, has been so successful as Cardui. It goes to the spot, relieving pain and distress, and building up womanly strength, in a way that will surely please you. Only try it once.

Back At Home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ballard, who went to California about a year ago to reside, have returned to their former home to live. Mr. Ballard took a drink from the Rock Spring many years ago, and he thinks the effect of that drink will never wear off.

HOW TO MARRY IN SCOTLAND

Whole Procedure Takes But an Hour or Two and Costs a Few Shillings.

By the act of 1856 the parties sign in the presence of two witnesses a declaration that they take each other as husband and wife. They then present a petition to the sheriff asking him to certify that they have been married and that one or both of them had their usual residence in Scotland before the marriage or had resided there for 21 days preceding it. This petition may be presented within three months of the declaration constituting the marriage, but is usually presented within three hours. The parties and witnesses attend before the sheriff and the witnesses confirm on oath the statements of fact. The sheriff thereupon grants warrant to the registrar to register the marriage. The registration can then be completed at once. The whole procedure only takes an hour or two and the cost is only a few shillings. On the eve of the new year and summer holidays there is a constant procession of newly married couples and their witnesses before the sheriff in Glasgow. The suitors are principally drawn from the artisan classes and the classes below them, but there is usually a sprinkling of a better class.—Spectator.

NOT TO BE MADE PUBLIC

He—In that newspaper article about Miss Oldgirl, her age wasn't mentioned.

She—Probably unfit for publication.

BRAGGART TAKEN DOWN.

A passenger who recently came over on one of the smaller boats relates this incident: There was a chap on board who was much given to boasting about his skill with the rifle. The captain thought he'd take the boaster down a peg, so he said: "I don't think you could hit this bottle placed on the rail at 20 yards' distance." The other replied that it would be mere child's play, whereupon the captain said: "I'll bet you $20 you don't hit it three times out of six." The boaster promptly took him up and the test was made. At the first shot he hit the bottle and it disappeared in fragments in the sea. "Trot out another one," cried the shooter, triumphantly, getting his rifle ready. "Not at all," replied the captain. "The conditions were that you should hit that one three times out of six. You have to hit it twice more."

WOMEN AND GLASS HOUSES.

If women would live in glass houses they would have almost perfect complexions. That's what a specialist says. He explains the more sun the women have the better are their complexions. He insists the sun produces the milk-and-roses skin and explains by pointing out the concentrated heat causes the pores to open and induces perspiration. Thus all dirt and impurities are removed. He suggests that women spend much time in the conservatory, saying the moist, warm air is good for the skin, while the perfume of the flowers and plants has a salutary effect. He doesn't say anything about the effect of damp conservatory air on a woman's general health.

THE PITY OF IT.

"Why," exclaimed a newly married woman to a bunch of friends, "for three months after our marriage my dear husband made me bake hot biscuits for him every meal."

"And yet your husband is a strong, healthy-looking fellow," answered her friend, in astonishment.

"Doctors say that such a diet is terrible, and—"

"Oh, yes—this husband is healthy. I was referring to my first husband!"

WHO IS THE MOST GENEROUS

Greatest Living Philanthropist, by Bible Standard, May Be W. W. Smith of Poughkeepsie.

Who is the greatest living philanthropist? By the standard established in the incident related by St. Mark, when Jesus sat over against the treasury and beheld how the people cast money into it, and many that were rich cast in much, but the poor widow who threw in a farthing contributed most of all, the greatest living philanthropist may not be easy to identify. Mr. Carnegie is not he, nor Mr. Rockefeller; perhaps not ever Dr. Pearsons, though he has reduced his possessions to an amount estimated as requisite to take care of him in no more than reasonable comfort for the rest of his days. It is said that Poughkeepsie's philanthropist, Mr. William W. Smith, in proportion to his income, gives in public benevolence more than any other person in the land.

A brief item telling of a gift of $40,000 to the Old Ladies' home notes that this brings Mr. Smith's benefactions for the current year to $80,000, and for the few years he has been practicing systematized distribution to more than half a million. Mr. Smith seems further entitled to peculiar distinction for his coinage of the phrase, "vestibule of heaven," as applicable to old ladies' homes.

BY THE OCEAN

Visitor—I wonder why they always call them the "wild waves?"

Native—Don't know; but I know what makes 'em wild.

Visitor—What?

Native—So many fools happen along, and as soon as they see the waves they say "What are the wild waves saying?"

COMPLETING THE ORDER.

A dear little old lady, who has no idea at all that she is old, made a discovery the other day. She overheard her grand-nephew telling another young man something about the excellence of the "free lunch" served at a certain big New York hotel. In the innocence of her perfectly dear old self she put the information down in her memory for future reference.

Soon after that she happened to be attending a concert at this same hotel, and the party—herself, her nephew and niece—went to the tea room later for a bit of refreshment. The tea was ordered, and then the dear little old lady looked at the waiter and with a sweet, old-fashioned smile and a suggestion of triumph in her manner, said:

"And you may bring us also some of the free lunch."

PLEASED WITH HER PRAISE.

One of the most charming bits of repartee we ever were fortunate enough to listen to was at a big wedding on East Seventy-sixth street last Monday night.

"What charming teeth Miss Dibleton has!" a lady exclaimed. "I never saw anything so beautiful!"

"Oh, thank you so much for saying that!" exclaimed the young lady's escort, fervently and sincerely.

"Oh, pardon me—are you her husband?"

"No, my dear lady—I am only her dentist!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THEN IT'S DIFFERENT.

Schubert was composing his serenade.

"It isn't really a serenade, you know," he said; "I'm not keeping anybody awake with it."

But how often—O, how often!—when thumped out of a reluctant, wheezing, tortured, agonized piano by the girl in the second floor flat, has that immortal production murdered the sleep of the occupants of the first and third floor flats!

CONFIDENT AS TO FUTURE

Negro Bridegroom Asked Parson Who Performed Ceremony to Wait Until the Bride Got a Job.

The pastor of a large Baptist church in a neighboring city, whose congregation included many negroes, received recently a call from a young colored man and woman on matrimony bent. The man had been a shiftless person and the woman was known as industrious. The preacher noticed that the bridegroom was all spruced up and concluded that the bride had made a proper member of society out of him, so he went ahead with the ceremony with a good deal of satisfaction.

He had it in mind not to accept a fee from these lowly members of his flock, but the bridegroom, with a beaming face, handed over the usual small envelope and departed with his Dinah before the preacher could protest. When the pastor opened the envelope later he read this note:

"Dear Pastor: I am sorry I cannot pay you a fee now for uniting me in wedlock, but I spent all I had on wedding clothes. I will send you the money just as soon as Dinah gets to work again."

The preacher got a fee later from a very grateful Dinah, who seemed to think it proper that she should pay, and was overcome with surprise when the fee was given back to her as a wedding present.

SURELY HAD KICK COMING

Conductor's Words Must Have Made Dark Clouds Settle Around Would-Be Passenger.

He was in an outlying part of the Bronx. He had an important engagement in the lower part of Manhattan and already he was late. Finally a trolley car hove in sight and bore rapidly down on him.

He signaled it, but in his dismay the speed was not slackened. There was a second of anxious thought—should he or should he not jump on the car—the speed was great, but so was the distance between cars.

And then came the back platform of the car, and he shot out his arm, clutched the hand rail—and the next instant he was standing on the platform, feeling as though his arm had been yanked from its socket, but wearing a self-satisfied smile.

The conductor, inside the car, pulled the bell and the car stopped.

"Hey! Get off of here!" shouted the conductor. "This is a work car."—New York Press.

Faith In Their Cause.

If they are thrice armed who have their quarrel just, then ladies' tailors must be the most righteous persons who ever invited a lawsuit, for they have confidence enough in their own cause to employ women lawyers. At a meeting of law school graduates who have worked up a lucrative practice, four women declared that their first clients were tailors.

"A ladies' tailor who does good work prefers a woman lawyer," said one. "She has a knowledge of clothes that no mere man can ever hope to acquire, and if the gown fought over is a half-way decent piece of workmanship she will be able to convince a judge and jury of its merits every time. Then, there is something to be gained in the advertising line, always provided, of course, that the tailor is worthy of patronage, for the lawyer will give him an order for her own suit and recommend him to friends."

Increase of Knowledge.

The mild-mannered man was so well informed about past, present and future dates of suffragist meetings that some one ventured the opinion that his wife must be one of the chief supporters of the cause.

"You're away off there," said another. "That chap isn't even married. He's a hotel clerk, and has to add suffragist meetings to his church, theater and political calendar for the benefit of women travelers. Out-of-town women who want to be up with the procession place those meetings at the head of New York's attractions. They haven't time to look up the dates for themselves, so the accommodating clerks keep tabs for them."

Steam-Kissed Oranges.

The final ripening process in the preparation of California oranges for the market is the exposure of the fruit to steam vapor, which imparts the golden yellow color described on the labels by "sun kissed" and other appetizing terms. Electric heat is employed to a large extent in producing this steam vapor, electric immersion coils in open tanks of water in the ripening rooms producing the warm humidity required to give the final tint to the orange of commerce.—Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette.

Live Without Water.

In Lower California a large number of the smaller desert mammals never drink water, according to American scientists who have recently visited the peninsula. They live and thrive on dry seeds and scraps of vegetation in places where the heat and aridity are excessive without ever touching their lips to water, and it has even found impossible to teach some of them to take water in captivity.

Mrs. Rogers—Why?

Rogers—I have already reduced all my other expenses.—Harper's Bazar.

OUR BIRDS MUST BE SAVED

Otherwise America Will Be a Birdless Land Within Ten Years, Says Dr. Hornaday.

"Then years from now America will be an absolutely birdless land, unless some action is immediately taken to stop the present destruction of song and game birds," said William T. Hornaday, president of the New York Zoological park, and author of the "American Natural History." "I do not like to think that our grandchildren will be obliged to visit a public aviary if they would study bird life, as they are now obliged to visit the zoo if they would see America's representative animal, the buffalo; but I am convinced that this will be necessary unless the people of America arouse themselves to immediate and vigorous protest. The subject of bird protection is far more serious than the public at large appreciates. Because some of us see a few robins and larks in our own city suburbs or in the country, we are slow to understand that these cheerful little feathered creatures are being slaughtered for food in many other city suburbs and country places."—Leslie's.

MUCH IS DUE TO SUGGESTION

Interdependence of Senses Revealed in Moving Picture Show With Synchronous Noises.

If you want to see how curiously suggestion works just visit a moving picture show where they supplement the films with synchronous noises, where stage hands make the sea roar and whistle for the approaching locomotive. Watch the pictures and you will wonder how the assistants make such adequate and suitable sounds to go with the scene.

Then shut your eyes and try to figure out what the noises you hear mean. You are sure you hear the washing of waves and when you open your eyes you see that it was the wind that you heard. Close your eyes again and more than likely what you thought was intended for a train of cars turns out to be a motor car.

The experiment holds good with a ventriloquist, the moving mouths of his puppets doing the heavy part in creating the illusion. A ventriloquist in the dark would be an anomaly. All of which shows how interdependent the senses are in conveying a mental impression.

CAT STOWAWAY.

Merriment was caused the other day at one of the Greenock (Scotland) quays by a stowaway cat. Several bags of tallow which had been landed from a coasting steamer were lying about the wharf, and one of these was observed to move in a decidedly uncanny way. One of the laborers made a slight opening in the middle of the bag with his knife. Quickly through the hole thus formed appeared a very greasy paw, which set to work in such business-like fashion that in a few seconds the gap was sufficiently wide to permit the egress of a cat. Puss, apparently, had been dining "in the interior" when the bag was closed. Much against her will, therefore, she had made the trip as a stowaway. The cat has been adopted as a pet by the workers at the quayside.

AVIATOR HAD GOOD TIME.

James Mars, the aviator, back in London after a tour in the far east to introduce the flying machine, had much of interest to relate. "The greatest mark of favor which I received," he said, "was in Korea, where the king sent me an elephant. It was an embarrassment of riches. I gave it to a girl and told her to be good to it. One striking honor conferred on me was the decoration which allows me six wives and perpetual immunity from working. It was given to me by the chief of the Moros in the Philippines, and there was nothing throughout our tour to equal the feasting of the occasion."

KEEP THE WINDOWS SHUT.

Every dweller in tropical or semi-tropical countries knows that windows and doors should be closed in the early hours of the morning, and not opened again until sunset if the house is to be kept reasonably cool throughout the day. They are opened widely enough to the breezes of the night, but dark blinds and closed shutters are the secret of keeping the temperature low. However, one can never convince an Englishman of this fact unless he also has seen its demonstration abroad. —British Australasian.
